4. Enjoy a hot chocolate with whipped cream at Hanselmann

Walking along the cobblestone streets of St. Moritz Dorf, you will find a uniquely beautiful building etched with typical Engadiner sgraffiti, the intricate artwork that adorns houses in the region. This is Conditorei Hanselmann, a renowned restaurant famous for its delicious pastries and sweets. Treat yourself to a mug of decadent hot chocolate with whipped cream and a slice of homemade Engadiner Nusstorte.

5. Paragliding flight over St. Moritz

Take flight over one of the world's most scenic valleys with a paragliding experience. Starting at the summit of Muottas Muragl, this trip will treat you to beautiful views of the St. Moritz skyline, Lake St. Moritz, along with the valley's other picturesque lakes, mountains, and forests. And you can take these memories with you, as your guide will shoot photos and videos during your sky-high adventure.

6. Visit the Leaning Tower of St. Moritz

Visit the tower even more off-kilter than the Leaning Tower of Pisa – the Leaning Tower of St. Moritz! This slanted structure was part of the old Church of St. Mauritius and is an important landmark just a few minutes' walk from heart of St. Moritz Dorf. You can see the tower's exterior and read a plaque detailing its history, which dates back to the 12th century!

7. Visit the Ice Pavilion in Kulm Park and drink a cocktail at the Kulm Country Club

The Ice Pavilion in Kulm Park is a must for any sports history enthusiast as it was a location for the Olympic Winter Games in 1928 and 1948. The 110-year-old pavilion is currently being renovated under the direction of renowned English architect Lord Norman Foster. While you take in the history, make sure to treat yourself to a delicious cocktail at the chic bar in the Kulm Country Club.

Kulm Country Club · Kulm Hotel St. Moritz

8. Have a sip from the St. Moritz healing spring

Indulge yourself in St. Moritz's most ancient tradition of bathing in the local healing mineral spring waters of the Mauritius springs. This nearly 3,500-year-old practice can still be found at the Forum Paracelsus in St. Moritz Bad. The ancient people who first used this water in 1411 BC found that when sick people visited these special springs, their pains and ailments disappeared. Try it for yourself and feel the spring's healing powers.

9. Visit the Olympic Stadium

St. Moritz has hosted two Olympic Winter Games: in 1928, which was the first true standalone Winter games, and in 1948. Today, the Olympic Stadium that was used for these games is part of the Kulm Golf Course in the summer. The building, which had not been used for two decades, was restored by famed furniture designer and great friend of St. Moritz, Rolf Sachs. The building is now his home and is always open to visitors.

10. Drink a St. Moritzino in the Renaissance Bar

The St. Moritzino is the signature cocktail of the Renaissance Bar located at Badrutt's Palace. This delicious drink, created by Chef des Bars Andrea Delvo, is made with Cointreau, fresh lime juice, and orgeat syrup. The Renaissance Bar also offers a selection of the world's finest cigars and an inviting ambiance that includes a hearth and beautiful leather chairs.

11. Swim in Lej Marsch

Just 10-15 minutes from St. Moritz by foot, car, or bike, Lej Marsch is a small lake that is perfect for swimming. With water at a pleasant temperature, surrounded by trees with a small sandy beach, picnic area, and grills, Lej Marsch is the ideal place to spend an afternoon with family and friends.

Water Sports activities | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

12. Swim in Lej da Staz

Lej da Staz is a larger lake that is something out of a dream. In the middle of the Staz forest, this clear lake has a sandy beach, lounge chairs, grills, and a raft in the middle to swim to, along with a restaurant and take-away food options. This lake is not accessible by car, only by foot or bicycle.

Water Sports activities | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

13. Book a guided tour of the Mili Weber House

Mili Weber was born in 1891 in the bilingual Swiss town of Biel/Bienne. She took up drawing and painting at a young age and eventually moved to St. Moritz to live a quiet life in a log cabin. While the cabin itself is architecturally interesting, what really sets this home apart is the paintings that Mili did on her walls and ceilings, transforming the cabin into a wondrous fairyland. Located on Via Dimlej and tucked away in the trees, this magical painted cabin can still be visited today.

Mili Weber House | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

14. Afternoon Tea at the Suvretta House

Enjoy the best afternoon tea in town in the lobby of the Suvretta House. Located in St. Moritz's dreamlike landscape, this hotel could easily be mistaken for a fairytale castle. Tea is served with a view of the lakes and in five-star comfort. Opened on 16 December 1912, the Suvretta House has been pampering its guests for over 100 years.

Tea Time | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

15. Eat homemade pasta at La Scarpetta

La Scarpetta restaurant was opened in 2018 by three young Engadiners who wanted to offer fresh pasta and their favourite wines in a cosy environment. With its wooden tables and floor, and fresh pasta hanging in the windows, you will feel like you just entered the home of the best cook in your family. Along with fresh pasta, delicious sauces, and excellent wines, the menu includes appetisers such as Cipolla Rossa Bruschetta, Carpaccio and Burrata.

Scarpetta | Culinary highlights in St. Moritz \(stmoritz.com\)

16. Caviar tasting at Glattfelder

For three generations, Glattfelder has been providing their customers with the freshest and best caviar on the market. In fact, it was the Glattfelder family that first brought caviar to the Engadin. At that time during the Second World War, caviar had to be eaten in private and away from the eyes of German spies. Thus the legendary "Caviar Stübli", a private back room to enjoy caviar, was born. While caviar can now be enjoyed anywhere, the Caviar Stübli remains at Glattfelder and is an insider's tip. Advance reservation is required.

Glattfelder AG | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

17. Eat truffle pizza at Chesa Veglia

In the local language of Romansh, Chesa Veglia means "old house", a fitting name as this is the oldest building in St. Moritz. This beautiful former farmhouse is home to a hotel and the Pizzeria Heuboden. As its name suggests, Italian specialties are served in the old hayloft of the farmhouse. Their Dama Bianca, a white pizza that replaces tomatoes with lots of truffles, sharp and spicy Parmesan, and tender buffalo mozzarella, is probably the most famous pizza in St. Moritz.

18. Eat a roast beef sandwich at Hatecke

Hatecke is a family-owned business that is over 100 years old. Offering meat products of the highest quality, this traditional and stylish butcher shop is run by the grandson of the founder, a butcher who opened the shop and restaurant in the 1920s. Everything on the menu is impeccable, but the roast beef sandwich served with tartar sauce on warm bread is a must – take it to go or enjoy it at Hatecke with a glass of fine wine.

Hatecke Bar Boucherie | Culinary highlights in St. Moritz \(stmoritz.com\)

19. Bike the flow trails on Corviglia

St. Moritz's mountain biking flow trails on Corviglia are smoothly rideable with flowing curves and waves instead of tight hairpin bends. And no oncoming traffic, as these trails are one way! Perfect for less experienced mountain bikers, or for anyone who wants to spend a fun day on a relaxing yet exhilarating bike ride through a mountain paradise.

Flow Trails Corviglia | Engadin, Switzerland

20. Visit the Chesa Futura

Lord Norman Foster completed his Chesa Futura in 2004. This building combines futuristic design with traditional building materials – 250,000 larch shingles were used for the building's façade! The Chesa Futura houses 10 exclusive private apartment suites so while it cannot be toured from the inside, it is definitely worth a visit to see its fantastic exterior.

Chesa Futura, St. Moritz \(engadin.ch\)

21. Send a postcard from St. Moritz

Since you're lucky enough to see the beauty of St. Moritz in person, why not share it with your loved ones back home by sending them a postcard? Many of St. Moritz's natural and historical landmarks can be found on the postcards available at the Tourist Information office in St. Moritz Dorf. Find a bench along the shore of Lake St. Moritz and write a few lines to someone you wish could be here with you.

Tourist Information St. Moritz Tourist Information Village \(engadin.ch\)

22. Read the St. Moritz Magazine in the sun

The St. Moritz Magazine is an annual publication that you can pick up at the Tourist Information office in St. Moritz. With a one-of-a-kind stylish design and full of inspiring stories and photos, it is the perfect magazine to be enjoyed while relaxing in the sun by Lake St. Moritz.

St. Moritz Magazine | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

23. Visit the Design Gallery

St. Moritz's Design Gallery is located in the Serletta car park between the lake, the train station, and Badrutt's Palace Hotel. It is open 24/7 and receives over one million visitors each year. As you traverse the gallery on the stairs or escalator between the lake and the Palace Hotel, you can admire 31 posters and photographs in large, illuminated frames. The works of art at this unexpected gallery change regularly, but are always eye-catching and entertaining.

Design Gallery | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

24. Participate in the St. Moritz Running Festival

Whether you're a casual runner or a frequent marathoner, you will find an event at the St. Moritz Running Festival, taking place 19-21 August 2022. You can take part in the Engadin Summer Run, a 25 km race along the lakes and through the forest, Run Pontresina, Crossing Engiadina, or the Free Fall Vertical, a 6.6 km race that gains over 1000 m of elevation. There is also a Kids Race circuit, and the Festival Village in St. Moritz is a great place to meet friends, eat, do yoga, and listen to live music.

Engadiner Sommerlauf \(stmoritzrunningfestival.ch\)

25. Eat veal shank ravioli at Dal Mulin

Dal Mulin, which means at the mill in Romansh, is a small fine-dining restaurant in the heart of St. Moritz. They offer high quality food and an exceptional wine selection, along with a friendly ambience and great service. Make sure to try their most famous dish, the veal shank ravioli!

dalmulin.ch

26. Carriage ride to Lej da Staz

If you prefer a more leisurely journey to Lej da Staz instead of walking or biking, a carriage ride from St. Moritz is the way to go. Your carriage will collect you wherever you desire and take you on a pleasant ride to and around the lake. Once there, you can relax, have something to eat and drink, and go for a refreshing swim. When you're ready, your carriage will take you back into town.

horse-drawn carriage rides | Engadin, Switzerland

27. Oat milk cappuccino and cinnamon bun at the Super Mountain Coffee

Follow our insider tip to the Super Mountain Coffee, located in the heart of St. Moritz while still being tucked away from the hustle and bustle. When you go, be sure to order the oat milk cappuccino and a delicious cinnamon bun. The small coffee shop also sells exclusive gifts like unique clothing and fine home goods.

Super Mountain Coffee | Culinary highlights in St. Moritz \(stmoritz.com\)

28. Eat a 5am croissant at Bäckerei Bad

Whether you have an early train, want to be the first on the trail, or are coming back from a long night out, the best place to get your early morning croissant is at the Bäckerei Bad St. Moritz. This bakery opens at 5am, ready to serve you delicious fresh bread rolls, warm croissants, and other pastries.

Bäckerei - BAD | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

29. Joyride to Lake Como

If you've never been to Lake Como, now is the time to enjoy la dolce vita in the warmth and sunshine, as it is just a two-hour drive from St. Moritz. And while you will be in a new country, you will still feel a touch of St. Moritz with you, as we also offer authentic Italian cuisine in the Engadin.

30. Joyride to Tirano

A gem of a small Italian town, Tirano is a little more than an hour's drive from St. Moritz over the stunning Bernina Pass. Enjoy this scenic and exciting drive by car or motorcycle, and once you arrive, treat yourself to an Aperol Spritz on the piazza.

31. Bernina Express St. Moritz-Tirano

If you would like to drink a cocktail on the way to Tirano, we recommend the Bernina Express, a roughly two-and-a-half-hour train ride that takes you from the alpine paradise of St. Moritz down to the palm trees of Tirano. On your way, you will see beautiful views of the Ospizio Bernina, 2,253 m above sea level, and the turquoise waters of Lake Poschiavo. While you travel, you'll be treated to tasty snacks, drinks, and information about the region.

Bernina Express - Rhaetian Railway RhB

32. Glacier Express to Zermatt

Known as the "world's slowest express train", this nearly eight-hour train trip is unlike any other. From St. Moritz to Zermatt, you will see natural wonders such as the Rhine Gorge, known as the "Grand Canyon of Switzerland", the stunning Oberalp pass, and the UNESCO World Heritage Albula Line with viaducts and a helical tunnel. A ride on the Glacier Express is always unforgettable, and for an over-the-top experience, reserve a seat in the Excellence Class.

Glacier Express - Excellence Class | St. Moritz | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

33. Walk to the Oscar Niemeyer House on the lake

Oscar Niemeyer was a pioneer of modern architecture and the mastermind behind the Brazilian capital of Brasilia, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. During his long and legendary career, Niemeyer designed just one building in Switzerland: the Oscar Niemeyer Haus on the northern shore of Lake St. Moritz. He was able to witness the completion of his design in 2011 at the age of 104. The building, which resembles a curved sheet of white paper, is now the home and studio of the photographer Florio Puenter.

Architecture | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

34. Visit the St. Moritz Documentation Library

The St. Moritz Documentation Library is the collective memory of the town of St. Moritz and a special and unique place in Switzerland. This library offers the complete story of the past and present of St. Moritz through photographs, books, posters, and more. These cultural archives can be explored through the online catalogues.

Library St. Moritz, St. Moritz | St. Moritz, Switzerland \(stmoritz.com\)

35. Schellenursli path

The Schellenursli path is a 45-minute trail leading from Salastrains to the Heidihütte and then on to the town of St. Moritz. This beautifully designed trail captures the authentic mountain ambience of the area. As you walk, you will pass magnificent wooden sculptures and panels of text in multiple languages that tell the story of the book A Bell for Ursli. And of course, the view is magnificent, with glimpses of St. Moritz coming through the treetops.

Schellenursli Trail • Theme trail » Engadin St. Moritz

36. Nietzsche House

This nearly 200-year-old house in the town of Sils Maria is where famed writer and philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche spent seven summers between 1881 and 1888. In 1958, a group purchased the house, renovated it, and opened a museum there in 1960. Visitors can see treasures such as first edition books and valuable manuscripts. Panels throughout the house provide insight into Nietzsche's philosophical ideas.

37. Giacometti Atelier

In 1906, the famous Swiss painter Giovanni Giacometti converted a small barn in his birthplace of Stampa in Val Bregaglia into an art studio. In this room, Giovanni's children and wife posed as models for his works of art. After he died in 1933, his son Alberto, who was by then a renowned artist himself, used the small studio when he stayed with his mother during the summer. When you visit today, you can still see traces of these two great artists in the small room.

38. Castle Tarasp

The Castle Tarasp in the Lower Engadin was built around 1040 by the Lords of Tarasp, who came to the region from Lake Como. It is now owned and managed by the Not Vital Foundation, which has opened it for guided tours (reservations necessary) and has added a museum to the castle, with a collection of antique, modern, and contemporary art.

Not Vital - Castle of Tarasp

39. Muzeum Susch

Located in the remnants of a 12th century monastery in the picturesque town of Susch along the Inn River, this unique museum was opened by Polish entrepreneur Grażyna Kulczyk in 2019. Its focus is on exhibiting women artists (although not exclusively), and it approaches art as a way of making underrepresented voices heard. Take a day trip to this beautiful valley and museum, and be sure to reserve a guided tour in advance.

59. Watershed Lunghin

The hike from Maloja to Bivio is one of the most spectacular mountain pass hikes in the Alps, and at the top, you will find something really special: Europe's triple watershed. To the east, the water flows to the Inn River and ends up in the Black Sea. To the northwest, it flows into the Gelgia River and eventually the North Sea. And to the southwest, water flows into the Mera and finally goes into the Mediterranean.

Watershed Lunghin, Maloja \(engadin.ch\)

60. Lake Cavlocchio

Lägh da Cavloc is a mountain lake near the Maloja Pass. Its northern and western shores are lined with fir trees, while its southern shore is a small lake beach in the summer, with firepits to grill and places to sunbathe. And if the hike there makes you hungry, stop in the Cavloc restaurant for some regional specialties or pick up some fresh goat cheese at Alp Cavloc for a picnic.

Lägh Cavloc, Maloja \(engadin.ch\)

61. Muottas da Schlarigna – The oldest pine tree

Nowhere in the world can you find as many Swiss pine trees as in the Swiss Alps. And the mightiest three of all these live above Celeerina between Lej da Staz and the Muottas da Schlarigna plateau. Of these three grand trees, the oldest is around 600, with a trunk circumference of 6.7 m. Hike up from St. Moritz across the Lej da Staz and up to Alp da Staz and Muottas da Schlarigna to visit this medieval tree.
